

Dom Casmurro (Portuguese Edition)

romance escrito por Machado de Assis em 1899 e publicado pela Livraria Garnier. Ao longo dos anos, Dom Casmurro, com seus temas como o ciúme, a ambiguidade de Capitu, o retrato moral da época e o caráter do narrador, recebeu inúmeros estudos, adaptações para outras mídias e sofreu inúmeras interpretações, desde psicológicas e psicanalíticas na crítica literária dos anos 30 e dos anos 40, passando pelo feminismo na década de 1970 até sociológicas da década de 1980, e adiante. Creditado como um precursor do Modernismo e de ideias posteriormente escritas por Sigmund Freud, o livro influenciou os escritores John Barth, Graciliano Ramos e Dalton Trevisan e é considerado por alguns a obra-prima de Machado. Além de ter sido traduzido para outras línguas, continua a ser um de seus livros mais famosos e é considerado um dos mais fundamentais de toda a literatura brasileira.
