

THE ROLL OF COMMON MEN (THE DOLL TRILOGY Book 3)

THE ROLL OF COMMON MEN (The Doll Trilogy Book 3) Ricocheting from the revelatory roller-coaster of her searches yet relieved by her latest answer to the eugenic deception, Adele is about to accept her identity and stop digging when her only brother disappears. Her researcher apparently drove his taxi off a wharf; a friend falls from a tree how many more will suffer because of her? Overwhelmed by guilt for what she has caused, the only way she can save Robert is by putting an end to the cover-up. She must find a list of the wronged people and by proving exactly what did happen to her ancestors during the first world war ... reveal the secrets of her family tree to the world. Yet, in failing to appreciate just how powerful are the people intriguing against her, how immoral their intent ... and how high the genetic stakes, Adele endangers not just herself but her whole family. And, even if she succeeds, is it right to reveal the truth her father sacrificed his life to hide?
