

Moments: Bedtime Stories & Truths

www.keithaanderson.com Moments (Bedtime Stories) capture a number of situations that can occur throughout a relationship, from the naive beginnings, to the grown-up appreciative states of a relationship. These stories will allow you or that significant other to express what they want to say in a romantic, funny, sassy, or thuggish way that will ultimately open waters that the relationship dared to set sail. Moments (Truths) are a collection of thoughts that in some point in everyone's life has gone through. It deals with situations ranging from work, home, mother, father, siblings, and personal relationships. Though they may reflect my pains, desires, failures, accomplishments and goals, maybe you as the reader may see something different. Allow these letters to ask you questions about who you are. At the very least I hope that they remind you of how far you have come or accomplished. Reader Reactions: Reader #1 Interesting, Funny, Entertaining, Reflective, Inspirational. Just a few words to capture some of my thoughts of this very fine writing from Mr. Anderson. I found the book speaking to me in many areas of my life and it was one of those books that caused me to reflect, be thankful and probably most importantly smile as you read a very positive book that is very well written. Throughout the pages his words are laced with the truths that all can relate to despite your beliefs, faith, employment or life situation. Mr. Anderson did a tremendous job in sharing his thoughts that I believe entertains, forces you to reflect and to be grateful. Additionally, he shares truths that can be helpful in our lifes journey. Well written, a great book from a Soldier that is a must read for all of us. Reader #2 Im sure you dont have a clue who I am, but I am from Andrews. I went to school with your brother Kenny. Anyway I am writing you because I read the story about you in the Georgetown
