

Pietr-le-Letton (Presses Pocket ; 1345) (French Edition)

183pages. poche. broche. Pietr-le-Letton arrive a Paris. Nul doute quil est la pour realiser une des colossales escroqueries dont il est coutumier. Le commissaire Maigret, qui a recu son signalement, le repere a son arrivee en gare du Nord. Il s'aprete a le filer lorsqu'un employe du train l'entraîne vers un compartiment ou git le cadavre d'un homme, parfait sosie du Letton. Mais est-ce bien lui? Pour en être sur, le policier retrouve la trace du premier voyageur dans un hotel parisien. Le soi-disant Letton y a rencontré un comparse avec laquelle il a disparu. La piste semble coupée jusqu'au moment où Maigret trouve un indice qui le mène a Fecamp. La traque continue mais les choses se gâtent lorsqu'on tente de tuer le commissaire. Publie en 1929, Pietr-le-Letton est un roman important car il sagit de la première aventure de Maigret. Un policier qui allait s'imposer dans le monde entier pour sa façon très personnelle de découvrir le coupable: loin d'utiliser les méthodes scientifiques, il s'imprègne de la personnalité des personnages pour mieux saisir les coupables. -Christophe Dupuis
